

Table of contents

From the Editor	5
Od redakcji	9

Theme of the issue: Families, Education and Artificial Intelligence (AI)

Anna Zellma, Jerzy Kostorz Generative artificial intelligence in Christian parenting education: the Polish context	15
Katarzyna Wojtanowicz Supporting the Educational Potential of the Family in Contemporary Society	31
Agnieszka Kubacka-Pawlak, Błażej Kmieciak Bonding instead of control: the importance of parent-child relationships as a safeguard against involvement in destructive activities in the virtual world	47
Bożena Katarzyna Majerek Educational Implications of the Anxiety of Artificial Intelligence	69
Jan K. Przybyłowski, Ireneusz Celary Catholic education and modern social communication technologies	85
Józef Kloch, Monika Przybysz Media Education in the Family in the Era of Artificial Intelligence: challenges and risks	99
Piotr Morciniec Ethics of Artificial Intelligence – facts and perspectives	127

Bartłomiej Kempe

The immortal quasi-person. An analysis of the phenomenon of using artificial intelligence to create avatars of deceased persons and to experience mourning from the perspective of Catholic anthropology . . . 145

Małgorzata Słowik, Mikołaj Jacek Łuczak, Maciej Maraszkiewicz

Digital Technologies in Preventing Domestic and Post-Separation Violence: A Concept for Implementing a Telecare System in Poland . . . 165

Varia

Alicja Barbara Żywczok

The Selflessness of Parental Love: Plutarch in the Intergenerational Discourse with Representatives of Modern Science 191

Leon Nieścior OMI

The way to motherhood by faith as a main theme in St. John Chrysostom's homilies on Hannah 211

Zygfryd Glaeser

Marriage and Family in God's Plan of Salvation: in the Conciliar and Post-conciliar Teaching of the Magisterium Ecclesiae in light of the Relatio synodi 2015 . . . 227

Lidia Pietruszka

Large families in Poland – specificity of their functioning and the received support 245

Marcin Moroń, Dariusz Krok

Free sharing with family members in times of crisis is linked with fewer internalizing symptoms: A network analysis 275

Patrycja Kaszubska-Dziergas

The functioning of NGOs supporting foster care as shown by online (auto) presentation 293

Magdalena Justyna Gadamska-Kyrcz, Magdalena Ochońska The importance of the subject “family life education” in shaping pro-family attitudes in the opinion of students and PhD students of higher education institutions in Małopolska	311
Łukasz Mirocha, Right-libertarian views on divorce causes in the light of evolutionary psychology	337
Kinga Kaleta, Justyna Mróz Forgiveness of an ex-spouse: Do self-compassion and context matter? . . .	361
Brygida Urszula Lika, Kamila Styś, Aleksandra Kwaśnicka The impact of personality traits and family support on foreign language teacher burnout	387
Anna Lenart, Jerzy Trzebiński The Role of Personality in Parenting a Child with Autism Spectrum . . .	413
Renata Pomarańska Dysfunctional Family Communication in the Context of a Family Member’s Incarceration: Styles, Patterns, and Interaction Strategies	437
Mariusz Gajewski Ostracism and Social Exclusion as a Tool of Control over Individuals Influenced by Controversial Cultic Groups: The Case of Jehovah’s Witnesses . . .	459

Reports

Anna Majchrowska-Kielak Rodzina w kryzysie – instytucje pomocy w Polsce	487
---	-----

